Annamarie Bondi-Stoddard
Named to Super Lawyers for Third Consecutive Year

MINNEAPOLIS — Nov. 5, 2009: Minneapolis-based Law & Politics, publishers of Super Lawyers magazines, announced that Lake Success, N.Y., medical malpractice attorney Annamarie Bondi-Stoddard has been named to the 2009 edition of New York Metro Super Lawyers. Each year, only 5 percent of the lawyers in the state receive this honor.

"In the highly competitive practice area of plaintiff's medical malpractice, Annamarie Bondi-Stoddard stands out as highly regarded by her peers," says Bill White, publisher of Super Lawyers and Law & Politics magazines.

Bondi-Stoddard is dedicated to helping financially secure the futures of significantly injured individuals. With more than 25 years of experience in the field of medical malpractice, she has successfully negotiated millions of dollars in settlements relating to cases involving women's health issues, birth injuries, neurological-related, cardiac-related and cancer-related cases, as well as other medical specialty cases where negligence is involved.

As an advocate for patient awareness, Bondi-Stoddard devotes time to community service by helping raise money for breast cancer and ovarian cancer research. She also helps fundraise for the American Heart Association and is a sponsor for various organizations involved with handicapped children. Bondi-Stoddard is a member of the Health Committee for the Long Island Women's Agenda, an organization that conducts yearly seminars on various health and social issues; she sits on the executive board as secretary of this organization as well.

Bondi-Stoddard has written extensively on medical malpractice in publications such as The New York Law Journal, and has also lectured on topics pertaining to medical malpractice law for lay audiences as well as fellow attorneys.

She is admitted to practice in New York, New Jersey, U.S. District Courts for the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York as well as the District Court for the District of New Jersey. In addition, she is admitted to practice in the U.S. Supreme Court and the U.S. Court of Federal Claims.

Her memberships include the New York State Trial Lawyers Association, Nassau-Suffolk Trial Lawyers Association, Nassau County Bar Association, American Association for Justice, New York State Bar Association, Nassau County Women's Bar Association, New York County Bar Association and the United Cerebral Palsy Auxillary of Nassau County.

The list of attorneys selected to New York Metro Super Lawyers appears in the October issue of New York Super Lawyers Metro Edition and the Oct. 4, 2009 issue of the New York Times magazine.

Super Lawyers recognizes outstanding attorneys in more than 70 areas of practice using a rigorous, multiphase selection process that considers 15 separate indicators of peer recognition, professional achievement and high ethical standards.

"In law school, if you finish in the top 10 percent of your class, you graduate with honors and it's a big deal," says Bill White, publisher of Super Lawyers and Law & Politics magazines. "But with Super Lawyers, we select only five percent of the entire profession. These lawyers represent the cream of the crop."

Founded in 1990, Law & Politics has been publishing annual Super Lawyers lists since 1991. Super Lawyers is published in 50 states and the District of Columbia by Law & Politics, a division of Key Professional Media, Inc., which is owned by Vance Opperman, the former president of West Publishing.
