David P. Matthews, sixth year named to Super Lawyers

MINNEAPOLIS — Jan. 26, 2010: Minneapolis-based Law & Politics, publishers of Super Lawyers magazines, announced that Houston, Texas, personal injury attorney David Matthews has been named to the 2009 edition of Texas Super Lawyers. Each year, only 5 percent of the lawyers in the state receive this honor.

"The practice area of plaintiffs' personal injury is highly competitive, yet David Matthews consistently receives high marks from his peers on the blue ribbon panel," says Bill White, publisher of Super Lawyers and Law & Politics magazines.

Matthews, who is conversant in Spanish, is board certified in personal injury law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. He has 20 years of experience handling cases involving pharmaceutical litigation, catastrophic injuries, product liability, plant explosions, aviation accidents, chemical and asbestos exposure, and many other types of personal injury law.

Before starting his own firm in 2007, Matthews worked with one of the oldest plaintiffs' firms in Houston for 16 years.

In addition to practicing law in all the districts of Texas, Matthews' Bar admissions include Mississippi, New York and the US Court of Appeals 5th Circuit.

Matthews is an adjunct professor at his alma mater, the South Texas College of Law, as well as an author. His articles include Self Insureds and Non-Subscribing: Suing and Defending, and New Horizons in Damages.
