Liane Janovsky, fourth year named to Super Lawyers

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. — Oct. 28, 2009: Minneapolis-based Law & Politics, publishers of Super Lawyers magazines, announced that Fort Worth, Texas, labor and employment attorney Liane Janovsky has been named to the 2009 edition of Texas Super Lawyers. Each year, only 5 percent of the lawyers in the state receive this honor.

"Liane Janovsky has the respect of her peers as evidenced by her nominations and peer evaluations during the Super Lawyers selection process," says Bill White, publisher of Super Lawyers and Law & Politics magazines.

Janovsky is Board Certified in Labor and Employment law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization, and opened Janovsky and Associates in 2006. Her law firm, which specializes in employment law, is certified as a "minority and woman-owned business" by the Texas HUB Program, the North Texas Central Regional Certification Agency and the Texas Unified Certification Program.

Janovsky handles disputes involving employment discrimination, retaliation, wrongful discharge, wage-and-hour claims, severance packages, enforcement of covenants not-to-compete, contracts, breach of fiduciary duty and trade secrets.

She is also a frequent speaker on employment and labor law issues, including the growing challenges surrounding social media usage in the workplace.

Janovsky is a member of the American Bar Association, the State Bar of Texas and the California Bar Association. She is a past chair of the Tarrant County Bar Association's Labor and Employment and Women Lawyers sections. She is admitted to practice before the U.S. District Courts for the Northern, Eastern and Southern Districts of Texas; the U.S. Courts of Appeals for the 5th and 9th Circuits; and the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California.

Janovsky is licensed to practice in Texas and California.
