David L. Plaut named to Super Lawyers two consecutive years

MINNEAPOLIS — Nov. 4, 2009: Minneapolis-based Law & Politics, publishers of Super Lawyers magazines, announced that Austin, Texas, insurance litigation and trial lawyer David L. Plaut has been named to the 2009 edition of Texas Super Lawyers. Each year, no more than 5 percent of the lawyers in the state receive this honor.

"Mr. Plaut has an impressive record in the area of insurance coverage," says Bill White, publisher of Super Lawyers and Law & Politics magazines. "Our research editors note a very active caseload in the past year and a loyal client base."

Plaut focuses on insurance coverage matters, insurance bad faith litigation, trial and appellate work. Most recently, he has been defending insurers involved in Hurricane Ike litigation in Houston and handling complex insurance coverage matters arising out of construction litigation.

Before going into private practice in 1998, Plaut served as a law clerk for United States District Judge Edward Prado in San Antonio. Plaut is admitted to practice in all Texas state courts as well as the United States District Court for all Districts of Texas and the United States Court of Appeals for the 5th Circuit.

His memberships include the American Bar Association, the Austin Bar Association and the Defense Research Institute — the international membership organization of all lawyers involved in the defense of civil litigation.

Plaut is a frequent speaker on insurance-related topics at continuing legal education conferences around the state, including the South Texas College of Law's Texas insurance law symposium in Houston, and the American Bar Association Section of Litigation's Insurance Coverage Litigation Seminar in Tucson.
