Craig Haston named to Super Lawyers

MINNEAPOLIS — Nov. 9, 2009: Minneapolis-based Law & Politics, publishers of Super Lawyers magazines, announced that Houston, Texas, family law and business litigator Craig Haston has been named to the 2009 edition of Texas Super Lawyers. Each year, only 5 percent of the lawyers in the state receive this honor.

"In the often acrimonious practice area of family law, Craig Haston is well regarded by his peers, as evidenced by his nominations and blue ribbon panel evaluations," says Bill White, publisher of Super Lawyers and Law & Politics magazines.

As a family law attorney, Haston has more than 17 years of experience representing clients throughout Texas in complex divorce, child custody, parentage, adoption and child support matters — as well as complex property cases, modifications and enforcement of orders, and premarital agreements. As a trained mediator, Haston has also successfully mediated hundreds of disputes.

Haston shares his experience outside of the courtroom, speaking at various continuing legal education courses on topics such as alimony, marital property rights in divorce, child support, and visitation establishment, modification and enforcement.

He was admitted to the Texas State Bar in 1992 and became board certified as a family law specialist by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization in 1999 and has been recertified every year since.

Currently, Haston is the President-Elect of the Houston Bar Association Family Law Section and Immediate Past-Chair of the Gulf Coast Family Law Specialists organization.

He is a life member of the National Order of Barristers and the Texas Family Law Foundation, and a member of the Texas Academy of Family Law Specialists.
