Ben Donnell named to Super Lawyers six consecutive years

MINNEAPOLIS — Dec. 11, 2009: Minneapolis-based Law & Politics, publishers of Super Lawyers magazines, announced that Corpus Christi, Texas, personal injury and health care attorney Ben Donnell has been named to the 2009 edition of Texas Super Lawyers. Each year, only 5 percent of the lawyers in the state receive this honor.

"Ben Donnell has received consistently high evaluations from his peers on the Blue Ribbon Panel," says Bill White, publisher of Super Lawyers and Law & Politics magazines.

Donnell is a named shareholder in the Corpus Christi office of Donnell, Abernethy & Kieschnick.

With more than 48 years of experience practicing law, Donnell's focus is on cases involving medical malpractice defense, products liability, energy-related litigation and health care litigation in the defense of physicians and health care institutions.

In addition to being board certified in civil trial law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization, Donnell is admitted to practice as a member of the Texas State Bar, U.S. District Court for the Southern, Eastern and Western Districts of Texas, 5th U.S. Court of Appeals and the U.S. Supreme Court.

Donnell is also a fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation and the American Bar Foundation, and is a member of the Corpus Christi Bar Association, the American Board of Trial Advocates, Texas Association of Defense Counsel, American Health Lawyers Association and the American Inns of Court.

Born in Wichita Falls, Texas, Ben received his Bachelor of Business Administration from the University of Texas in 1959 and his LLB from the University of Texas in 1961. After law school, Ben was a briefing attorney with the Supreme Court of Texas from 1961 to 1962.
