John C. Ginn named to Super Lawyers five consecutive years

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. — Oct. 8, 2009: Minneapolis-based Law & Politics, publishers of Super Lawyers magazines, announced that Sulphur Springs, Texas, personal injury litigator and trial attorney John Ginn has been named to the 2009 edition of Texas Super Lawyers. Each year, only 5 percent of the lawyers in the state receive this honor.

"John Ginn has an outstanding record of achievements as a lawyer," says Bill White, publisher of Super Lawyers and Law & Politics magazines. "He scored very high in the evaluation phase of our process."

In his nearly 20 years of practicing personal injury law, criminal defense and family law, Ginn has served as lead counsel on a number of high profile civil and criminal cases. He has also served as past president of the Northeast Texas Bar Association, past chairman of the District 1A Grievance Committee, and as a member of the professionalism committee of the State Bar of Texas.

Recently, Ginn has been named to the Executive Committee of the Baylor Law Alumni Association. He also serves as a director and sustaining member of the Texas Trial Lawyers Association.

"It is indeed an honor to be recognized by an organization with the credibility and reputation of the 'Law and Politics' group," said Ginn when asked about being named for the 5th consecutive year to the list. "Considering the number of excellent lawyers we have in the Sulphur Springs area, I am especially humbled to be the only personal injury lawyer from my community to be included on this year's list."

Along with being a member of the State Bar of Texas, Ginn is board certified in personal injury trial law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization and certified as a civil trial advocate by the National Board of Trial Advocacy.

Ginn is responsible for the largest personal injury verdict in the district encompassing Lamar, Hopkins, Delta and Franklin counties.
