Mark A. Ticer named to Super Lawyers four consecutive years

MINNEAPOLIS — Nov. 4, 2009: Minneapolis-based Law & Politics, publishers of Super Lawyers magazines, announced that Dallas, Texas, insurance litigator Mark Ticer has been named to the 2009 edition of Texas Super Lawyers. Each year, no more than 5 percent of the lawyers in the state receive this honor.

"Attorney Ticer has consistently received high marks from his peers in the blue ribbon panel as well as a strong score from the Super Lawyers research editors," says Bill White, publisher of Super Lawyers and Law & Politics magazines.

Ticer has more than 20 years of experience practicing law in Texas, representing clients in primarily insurance-related matters including insurance coverage, denied claims and all forms of insurance bad faith. In need-based cases, Ticer also contributes pro bono legal assistance.

In addition insurance matters, Ticer has experience with commercial litigation and has had successful results for numerous small businesses in Texas. His experience includes legal malpractice as well as assisting clients in matters involving serious personal injury.

A graduate of Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law, Ticer continues to stay current in his field. He regularly writes articles covering insurance topics such as, Why You Should Care About Appraisals \(And What Happens When You Do Not\), and is frequently invited to speak at legal seminars for other lawyers and professionals.
