Donato D. Ramos, third year named to Super Lawyers

MINNEAPOLIS — Nov. 6, 2009: Minneapolis-based Law & Politics, publishers of Super Lawyers magazines, announced that Laredo, Texas, energy and natural resources attorney Donato D. Ramos has been named to the 2009 edition of Texas Super Lawyers. Each year, no more than 5 percent of the lawyers in the state receive this honor.

"Mr. Ramos has received high marks from the Super Lawyers research editors," says Bill White, publisher of Super Lawyers and Law & Politics. "He brings almost 40 years of experience to his practice in the area of Energy and Natural Resources, and he is highly regarded by his peers as evidenced by his evaluations from the Blue Ribbon Panel."

Additionally, Ramos was recently inducted into the American College of Trial Lawyers, whose membership is by invitation-only and limited to one percent of the total lawyers of any state.

Ramos is admitted to practice in Texas, including:

- the United States District Courts of the Southern District of Texas
- the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals
- the United States Supreme Court

He has more than 37 years of experience with cases involving oil and gas, property disputes, personal injury and commercial cases.

Mr. Ramos prides himself in being able to represent clients in both the litigation and transactional areas of the law.

The list of attorneys selected to Texas Super Lawyers appears in the October issue of Texas Monthly in a special advertising section and in Texas Super Lawyers magazine which is sent to lawyers across the state.

Super Lawyers recognizes outstanding attorneys in more than 70 areas of practice using a rigorous, multiphase selection process that considers 15 separate indicators of peer recognition, professional achievement and high ethical standards.

"In law school, if you finish in the top 10 percent of your class you graduate with honors and it's a big deal," says Bill White, publisher of Super Lawyers and Law & Politics magazines. "But with Super Lawyers, we select only five percent of the entire profession. These lawyers represent the cream of the crop."

Founded in 1990, Law & Politics has been publishing annual Super Lawyers lists since 1991. Super Lawyers is published in 50 states and the District of Columbia by Law & Politics, a division of Key Professional Media, Inc., which is owned by Vance Opperman, the former president of West Publishing.
