Robert D. Howell named to Georgia Rising Stars for second consecutive year

MINNEAPOLIS — Jan. 19, 2010: Minneapolis-based Law & Politics, publishers of Super Lawyers magazines, announced that Moultrie, Ga., attorney Robert Howell has been named to the 2010 Georgia Rising Stars list.

Each year, no more than 2.5 percent of the lawyers in the state receive this honor.

The Super Lawyers research editors were impressed by Mr. Howell's litigation experience and his service to the community as a lawyer.

Additionally, Howell was elected as a Vice President of the Georgia Trial Lawyers Association in 2009.

As a founding member of his law firm, Howell + Parrott, LLP, Howell primarily represents plaintiffs in serious injury and death cases as well as individuals and companies in business tort lawsuits. Within the last three years, Howell has resolved multiple cases resulting in high six- and seven-figure recoveries for his clients.

Howell handles the firm's litigation matters, including a wide variety of both plaintiff and defense cases in state and federal courts. His practice areas also include worker's compensation and other litigated matters.

Howell + Parrott, LLP has four attorneys and operates two offices, one in Moultrie and one in Quitman.

As an active member of the community, Howell serves on multiple boards and local organizations in his hometown of Moultrie, Ga., including the Moultrie Housing Authority, the Boys and Girls Club of Colquitt County and the Moultrie Technical College Foundation.

He is past board member of the UGA School of Law Board of Visitors and currently is chairman of the Colquitt County Serenity House – the local battered women's shelter. Additionally, he serves in several leadership roles in the First United Methodist Church.

Howell is admitted to practice in all Georgia state and federal courts, and is a member of the State Bar of Georgia, the Moultrie Bar Association, the American Bar Association, the Georgia Trial Lawyers Association and the American Association for Justice.

The list of attorneys selected to Georgia Rising Stars appears in the March 2010 issue of Atlanta Magazine in a special advertising section and in the 2010 issue of Georgia Super Lawyers magazine which is sent to lawyers across the state.

Law & Politics strictly adheres to a rigorous selection process with the goals of casting as wide a net as possible, evaluating quality in the most objective possible terms and verifying and validating all data. The only way a lawyer can be listed in Rising Stars is through this selection process. The determination of whether a lawyer will be placed in the Rising Stars list is independent of advertising or any other payments.

No other legal publisher identifies qualified candidates by using a multi-step evaluation process that incorporates peer recognition and professional achievement. Law & Politics uses a nomination process, peer evaluation and internal research, which acts as a system of checks and balances. The resulting product is a diverse and comprehensive listing of outstanding lawyers.

Founded in 1990, Law & Politics has been publishing annual Super Lawyers lists since 1991. Super Lawyers is published in 50 states and the District of Columbia by Law & Politics, a division of Key Professional Media, Inc., owned by Vance Opperman, the former president of West Publishing.
