

Laurie J. Wasserman, Fifth Year Named to Super Lawyers

MINNEAPOLIS - March 1, 2010: Laurie J. Wasserman has been named by Illinois Super Lawyers as one of the top attorneys in the state for 2010. Each year, no more than 5 percent of the lawyers in the state receive this honor.

The selections for this esteemed list are made by the research team at Super Lawyers, which is a service of the Thomson Reuters Legal Division based in Eagan, Minn. Each year, the research team at Super Lawyers undertakes a rigorous multi-phase selection process that includes a statewide survey of lawyers, independent evaluation of candidates by the attorney-led research staff, a peer review of candidates by practice area and a good-standing and disciplinary check.

An employment law attorney with more than twenty five years of experience, Wasserman has served as lead counsel in cases for discrimination based on sexual harassment, age, religion, race, sexual orientation, national origin, disability and pregnancy. In addition, she has litigated cases for breach of an employment contract and breach of non-compete agreements, theft of trade secrets, retaliation and whistleblowing. For many years she served as the liaison between the Chicago Bar Association, the Illinois Department of Human Rights and the Illinois Human Rights Commission.

Wasserman works with businesses on discrimination issues to ensure their compliance with the maze of federal, state and local employment laws. As part of that service, she drafts employee handbooks, employment contracts and policies, and provides training to employees and companies in various employment-related areas such as sexual harassment. Wasserman is also a frequent lecturer to legal and lay groups on employee relations, sexual harassment, employee discrimination and other employment-related topics.
