

William D. Lipkind named to Super Lawyers

MINNEAPOLIS — March 25, 2009: William D. Lipkind, member of Lampf, Lipkind, Prupis & Petigrow, with offices in West Orange, N.J. and New York City, a taxation and estate planning attorney, has been named to 2010 New Jersey Super Lawyers. Each year, only 5 percent of the lawyers in the state receive this honor.

The selections for this esteemed list are made by the research team at Super Lawyers, which is a service of the Thomson Reuters, Legal division based in Eagan, Minn. Each year, the research team at Super Lawyers undertakes a rigorous multi-phase selection process that includes a statewide survey of lawyers, independent evaluation of candidates by the attorney-led research staff, a peer review of candidates by practice area, and a good-standing and disciplinary check.

As founding member of Lampf, Lipkind, Prupis & Petigrow, Mr. Lipkind specializes in wealth preservation, tax planning, and estate planning. He structures how clients' assets are held so as to minimize or eliminate exposure to creditors, death taxes, gift taxes, and income taxes.

He lectures frequently and has published several articles including Protecting Assets from Creditors, On the Road Offshore: The Struggle between Protection of Assets and Fraudulent Conveyances, and Gallagher Revisited: The Functionally Unrelated Corporate Reorganization.

Lipkind is a Harvard Law School graduate and has a master's degree in taxation from New York University. In addition to serving on the advisory board of a leading Delaware institutional fiduciary, Lipkind is a member of the Essex County, New Jersey State and American Bar Associations. He is also a member of the Offshore Institute.

William D. Lipkind is available as a resource to reporters on the topics of estate planning and asset protection. He is a resident of Bernardsville, N.J.
